

THE LEADER OF OUR DREADNAUGHT FLEET

Rear Admiral Badger's Flagship U. S. S. Arkansas.

LOCAL WAR BITS

Major R. B. Chappelle, 81, Civil War veteran, ready to go to front. Illinois Spanish War veterans offer six regiments.

200 Red Cross nurses ready. Y. W. C. A. members preparing for service.

Modern Woodmen of the World ready to put 2,000 equipped and drilled men in field within 24 hours.

"Clamor for butchery of men seems to have broken all restraint," said Dr. Charles G. Beals of American Peace Society. Terms opening of hostilities "a stupid, wicked mistake."

Students at University of Chicago humbled "Huerta." 21-gun salute fired from 22-caliber pistol.

Martial spirit has struck John Marshall High School. Boys to enlist and girls to send cushions.

Bohemian-American wanted to resign citizenship. Got warm reception in Circuit Court. Fled.

President of Greek-American Athletic Club prepared to offer 600 Balkan War veterans.